BOWLING GREEN MAN SENTENCED FOR CONSPIRACY TO COMMIT BANK FRAUD

BOWLING GREEN, KY - Kenneth J. Moore, age 36, of Bowling Green, Kentucky, in Warren County, was sentenced to 15 months imprisonment, for participating in a conspiracy to make and utter counterfeit and forged payroll and personal checks, U.S. Attorney David L. Huber of the Western District of Kentucky announced today. Joseph H. McKinley, Jr., Judge, United States District Court, also sentenced Moore to 3 years supervised release following incarceration. There is no parole in the federal judicial system.

Moore's co-defendants, Anthony Willis Simmons, age 30; James Lee Cooper, age 32; Jesse Dewayne Howard, age 43; and Tekulve Walker, age 27; all of Bowling Green, Kentucky, in Warren County, have previously plead guilty to Conspiracy to Commit Bank Fraud and will be sentenced later this month by Judge McKinley. Moore's co-defendants Charles Wayne Bishop, Jr., age 44, and Alisa Kendra Beck, age 32, both of Bowling Green, Kentucky, in Warren County, pled guilty today, and are scheduled to be sentenced on December 6, 2007.

The case was prosecuted by Assistant United States Attorney Ann Claire Phillips, and it was investigated by the United States Secret Service and Bowling Green Police Department.
